Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 20A-3-309 is amended to read:

20A-3-309. Absentee ballots and provisional ballots in the custody of the election officer -- Disposition -- Counting -- Release of number of absentee ballots cast.

(1) The election officer shall deliver all envelopes containing valid absentee ballots and valid provisional ballots that are in the election officer's custody to the place of the official canvass of the election by noon on the day of the official canvass following the election.

(2) (a) [~~Absentee~~] Valid absentee ballots and valid provisional ballots may be processed and counted:

(i) by the election officer before the date of the canvass; and

33 (ii) at the canvass, by the election officer or poll workers, acting under the supervision
34 of the official canvassers of the election.

35 (b) When processing ballots, the election officer and poll workers shall comply with
36 the procedures and requirements of Section 20A-3-308 in opening envelopes, verifying
37 signatures, confirming eligibility of the ballots, and depositing them in a ballot box.

38 (3) (a) After all valid absentee ballots and valid provisional ballots have been
39 deposited, the [~~absentee~~] ballots shall be counted in the usual manner.

40 (b) After the polls close on the date of the election, the election officer shall publicly
41 release the results of those absentee ballots and provisional ballots that have been counted on 42 or before the date of the election.

43 [~~(c) The election officer may not release any results from those absentee ballots that are
44 counted after the date of the election through the date of the canvass.~~]

45 (c) On each day, beginning on the day after the date of the election and ending on the 46 day before the date of the canvass, the election officer shall publicly release the results of all
47 absentee ballots and provisional ballots counted on that day.

48 (d) On the date of the canvass, the election officer shall provide a tally of all absentee
49 ballots and provisional ballots counted, and the resulting tally shall be added to the official
50 canvass of the election.

51 (4) (a) On the day after the date of the election, the election officer shall determine the 52 number of absentee ballots received by the election officer at that time and shall make that
53 number available to the public.

54 (b) The election officer may elect to publicly release updated totals for the number of 55 absentee ballots received by the election officer up through the date of the canvass.
